

WAM MEDIA RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
[09/08/2010]

WAM SONG OF THE YEAR 2010 – ONLINE ENTRIES CLOSE TOMORROW

This is the last chance to get your entry in for WAM Song Of The Year 2010.

The deadline is Midday (AWST) tomorrow, Tuesday 10 August 2010.

Entries can only be made online through Sonicbids at www.sonicbids.com/wamsoty

Now in its 21st year, the WAM Song Of The Year offers its Grand Prize winner $5,000 cash, a 3 day recording session supplied by Poons Head Recording Studio, a mastering session with James Hewgill Music, the pressing of 500 CDs by DiskBank, plus an opportunity for a publishing deal with Perfect Pitch Publishing.

Unpublished songwriters can enter their compositions in 10 genre categories and 2 school age categories, all with prizes of $500 plus one day of recording time in a professional recording studio. There is also a "Mentally Healthy" category, where songwriters are encouraged to share songs which deal with positive messages relating to mental health, and a special "Love" category. Outstanding Regional and Indigenous songwriters will once again be honoured in bonus categories.

Go to www.wam.asn.au for full competition details.

- ENDS -

For further media information, please contact:

Daphne Tan – Project Officer, WAM Song Of The Year

p: +61 (0)8 9227 7962

e: daphne@wam.asn.au