

MORE DETAILS ABOUT TAKEAWAY TUNES

This week local record label Love is My Velocity announced the full live music recording studio program for their Takeaway Tunes temporary local label shop. Takeaway Tunes opens from 11am-9pm May 19-23 at 54 Lake Street as part of the 2010 WAMi Festival.

Eleventh He Reaches London, Schvendes, Tomas Ford and the Bank Holidays join the Tigers, Taco Leg, Jane Harris, the Ghost Hotel, Benedict Moleta, a collective of artists from the Owls label and Hayley Beth. They will record new songs and reinterpret favourites in the studio according to the following program:

	3-4pm	6-7pm	8-9pm
Wednesday May 19			Eleventh He Reaches London
Thursday May 20		The Ghost Hotel	Benedict Moleta
Friday May 21		Schvendes	Tomas Ford
Saturday May 22	The Bank Holidays	The Tigers	Taco Leg
Sunday May 23	Jane Harris	Owls	Hayley Beth

Sessions are open to the public at 54 Lake Street Northbridge, opposite the Elephant and Wheelbarrow. The recorded tracks will be available for free download from LoveisMyVelocity.com and broadcast on RTR FM the following day.

From mid-afternoon to early evening, the above bands will turn the shop into a live venue and studio, producing recordings of new songs in rough, ready, one-hour live sessions.

Inside the recording studio is a temporary pop-up shop where shoppers can buy and browse an interesting range of CDs, records, vinyl, t-shirts, merchandise and related products. Stock is sourced from WA's thriving community of local labels, including Meupe, Hidden Shoal, Walking Horse Records, Badminton Bandit, Owls, Heartless Robot, The Community and Jarrah Records. The goods of independent Perth bands and musicians are also represented.

To celebrate Takeaway Tunes, Love Is My Velocity created a collection of limited edition pillowcases called Sleeping With the Band. Hand-printed in editions of 10, the series features James Baker (The Painkillers), Josh Fontaine (6s & 7s), Felicity Groom, Abbe May and Sam Scherr (Capital City) as depicted by local artists Larissa Boyd, Freya Poulsen, Lisa Businovski, Gemma Weston and Natalie Davis.
